ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIA.

DR. J. S. HOUGHTON'S PEPSIN, the true Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, prepared from Rennet, or the fourth stomach of the Ox, after directions from Baron Liebig, the great Physiologist, Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

This is truly a wonderful remedy for indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Constipation and Debility, curing after Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice.

Half a teaspoonful of Pepsin, infused in water, will digest or dissolve Five Pounds of Roast Beef, in about two hours, out of the stomach.

Pepsin is the chief element, or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice—the Solvent of the food, the Purifying, Preserving and stimulating agent of the stomach and intestines. It is extracted from the digestive stomach of the ox, thus forming an artificial digestive fluid, precisely like the natural Gastric Juice in its Chemical powers, and furnishing a complete and perfect substitute for it.

By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspepsia, curing cases of Debility, Excitation, Nervous Decline, and Diarrhoea, and is supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and remarkable.

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE. Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: "An artificial digestive fluid, analogous to the gastric juice, may be made from the stomach of the calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened and digested, just in the same manner as they would be in the human stomach."

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writings on the "Physiology of Digestion," observes that "a diminution of the due quantity of the gastric juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspepsia;" and he states that "a distinguished Professor of Medicine in London, who was severely afflicted with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had recourse to the gastric juice, obtained from the stomach of living animals, which proved to be perfectly successful."

Dr. Houghton, author of the famous works on "Vegetable Diet," says: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomachs of animals, macerated in water, impart to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of forming a kind of artificial digestion of them, in no way different from the natural digestive process."

Call on the Agent, and get a descriptive circular, gratis, giving a large amount of scientific evidence, similar to the above, together with reports of remarkable cures, from all parts of the United States.

AS A DYSPEPSIA CURE. Dr. Houghton's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in curing cases of debility, emaciation, nervous decline, and dyspepsia, consumption, and in restoring the details of cases in the line of vertigo, vertebrosis; but authenticated cures of vertigo have been given of more than two hundred remarkable cures in Philadelphia, New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate cases, and the cures were not only rapid and wonderful, but permanent.

It is a great nervous antidote, and particularly useful for tendency to bilious disorder, liver complaint, fever and ague, or badly treated fever and ague, and the evil effects of quinine, mercury, and other drugs upon the digestive organs, after a long sickness. Also, for excess in eating, and the two frequent uses of ardent spirits. It almost reconciles health with intemperance.

OLD STOMACH COMPLAINTS. There is no form of old stomach complaints which it does not seem to reach and remove at once. No matter how bad they may be, it gives instant relief! A single dose removes all unpleasant symptoms; and, it only needs to be repeated for a short time to make these good effects permanent. Purity of body and vigor of blood follow at once. It is particularly excellent in cases of nausea, vomiting, cramps, soreness of the pit of the stomach, distress after eating, low color of the blood, heaviness, loss of spirits, despondency, tendency to insanity, suicide, &c., &c.

Dr. Houghton's Pepsin is sold by nearly all the druggists in the United States. It is prepared in powder and liquid form, and in private circulars for the use of physicians, may be obtained of Dr. Houghton or his agents, describing the whole process of preparation, and giving the authorities upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As it is not a secret remedy, no objections against its use can be raised by physicians in respectable standing and regular practice. Price, one dollar per bottle.

Observe this! Every bottle of the genuine Pepsin, bears the signature of J. S. Houghton, M. D., sole proprietor, Philadelphia, Pa. Copy-right and trade mark secured.

FOR THE LEDGER. I'll Think of Thee. TO MISS S. . . . I'll think of thee, when morn's bright hour, Spreads golden radiance o'er the sea; And far or near, still own the power, That binds my constant heart to thee. And should I roam mid other scenes, In foreign lands far from thee, I'll nurse thine image in my dreams, And think of thee—of none but thee.

From the Banner of the Cross. LIVINUSTON, Sumpter Co., Ala. 1852. SIR:—By the mail I return, uncut a copy of your "Speech in the Senate of the United States, on your motion to repeal the Fugitive Slave Bill." This speech which came under your frank, and consequently, by your order, has, I suppose, been sent to others of my brethren whose names and addresses have been copied from the same published list of the clergy, from which my own was taken. As you know nothing of me, I acquit you of any design to offend me personally. You have only offered a general indignity to those ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church whose homes are in the South. In the abuse of the franking privilege, you have sought to outrage the most obvious sentiments, expressed in the most offensive manner, upon men who would have refused to hear the word from your lips. Men of the world deem this conduct insulting; and I am yet to learn that an injury is any the less aggravated by the fact that the sufferers are forbidden to retaliate. We can only protest against such treatment.—Whether our remonstrances are to be heeded by one who wantonly despises the patience, not only, but the safety of the nation, is for you to decide.

O, how we love a cheerful sun-shiny face. It is perfectly refreshing to meet a cheerful man with his face covered all over with a broad honest smile. Such a face is always an index to an honest, generous and kind heart, within. The very atmosphere in which such a man moves, breathes cheerfulness, and all about him are happier for his presence. He looks on the bright side of the picture, hopes all will be for the best, and rises above misfortune; not suffering small and trifling difficulties to harass and disturb his mind. To the drooping moping invalid, the companionship of such a man is worth more than all the drugs in Christendom, or even a voyage over the waters. Cheerfulness is the secret of good health. The old saying of "laugh and grow fat," is full of philosophy. The cheerful man don't complain and growl because the weather is too hot or too cold, too wet or too dry; but thinks it will all soon be right again. He laughs because he is cold, or because he is almost melting with heat. If the market is dull, he is glad that he has sold his produce before the price fell or if he has not sold, he thinks there will be a change in the market—the price will be better before he sells. And should it happen that he has to take a low price at last, he laughs at himself for being bit, for it is "as well to laugh as cry." Such a man is generally honest, and always generous.—He laughs at his own disappointments rises above trifling difficulties; his mind is not forever employed in lamenting his own troubles, and consequently he has time to consider the necessities and sufferings of others—a soul capacious enough to sympathize with those in distress, and a liberal enough to supply their wants. It is true, a man may "smile and be a villain still;" but it is easy to distinguish between the sordid grin and the open generous and merry laugh of the truly cheerful man.

THE Eighth Volume of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN commences on the 18th of September. It is principally devoted to the diffusion of useful practical knowledge, and is eminently calculated to advance the great interests of industry, Mechanical, Manufacturing and Agricultural—the genius and master-spirit of the nation. It is unrivalled as a Journal of the Arts and Sciences, and maintains a high character at home and abroad. The Publishers pledge themselves that the future Volumes shall at least equal if not surpass their predecessors. Among the subjects chiefly brought forward and discussed in its columns are, Civil Engineering, Architecture, Railroads, Bridges, Agricultural Implements, Manufactures of Metals, Fibrous and Textile substances, Machinery for the purpose, Chemical processes, Distilling, Coloring, &c. Steam and Gas Engines, Boilers and Furnaces, Mathematical Philosophical and Optical Instruments, Cars, Carriages, Water-wheels, Wind and Grind-mills, Mills, Powers, Planing Machines, Tools for Lumber, Brick Machines, Farming, Fire Arms, Electricity, Telegraphs, Surgical Instruments, &c., besides Claims of all the Patents, Reviews, Notices of New Inventions, American and Foreign. The work is in form for binding, contains several hundred Engravings, over four hundred pages of printed matter, and a copious Index. Nearly all the valuable Patents which issue weekly from the Patent Office are illustrated with Engravings in its columns, thus making the paper a perfect Mechanical Encyclopedia for future as well as present reference. Valuable Premiums are offered for the Largest List of Subscribers to this Volume. It is published weekly by MUNN & CO., at their Patent Agency Office, 128 Fulton St., New York.

DOUBLE NUMBERS FOR 1852. GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE FOR 1852! THE MAGAZINE OF THE UNION. The New Volume of this unrivaled and popular Monthly commenced with the January number—the handsome number ever published. The well established character of Graham's Magazine, as the leading American Monthly, renders it unnecessary to set forth its merits in each recurring Prospectus. It has won its way, after years of success, to the front rank among its rivals, and is now universally conceded to be THE BEST AMERICAN MAGAZINE. DOUBLE NUMBERS FOR 1852. The reading matter of Graham's Magazine for '52 is year will be about double that of former volumes, making a book unrivaled by any that has ever appeared in America or Europe. The very best American writers will continue to contribute to its pages, and the wide range of literature of the world will also be brought to aid the work and variety of the letter-press contents of the work. G. P. R. JAMES. The original novel written by this accomplished writer for "commences in the January number, and will be found to be one of the most entertaining of the many romances by this universally popular author. SPLENDID AND COSTLY ENGRAVINGS. In the department of Art Graham's Magazine has always been celebrated. The excellence and beauty of its pictorial appointments far surpass the usual adornments of the Monthly Magazines. The very finest and most expensive efforts of the first artists of Europe and America grace the work. Every variety of subject and of style is found in perfection in "Graham" No inferior or interior designs mar its beauty but all its taste and suggest or capital command in the way of elegance is to be had in the yearly volumes of this Magazine. We ask our readers to take the twelve numbers of last year and compare them with the same number of any current periodical to test the vast superiority of Graham's Magazine in this respect. The new volume opens in a style of elegance that must convince our friends that "Graham" is our motto for 1852, and that "Graham" will continue to be THE FAVORITE OF THE PUBLIC, both in its pictorial and literary character while the extraordinary increase of the amount of reading matter will insure it a still wider SINGLE Copies 3 dollars Two copies $5; Five copies 10; dollars Eight copies $15; dollars and Ten copies for 20, dollars and an extra copy to the person sending the club of ten subscribers. LIVER COMPLAINT, JAUNDICE, DYSPEPSIA, CHRONIC OR NERVOUS DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS, AND ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM A DISORDERED LIVER OR STOMACH, SUCH AS CONSTIPATION, INWARD PILES, FULLNESS, OR BLOOD TO THE HEAD, ACIDITY OF THE STOMACH, NAUSEA, HEART-BURN, DISGUST FOR FOOD, FULLNESS, OR WEIGHT IN THE STOMACH, SOUR ERUCTIONS, SINKING OR FLUTTERING AT THE PIT OF THE STOMACH, SWIMMING OF THE HEAD, HURRIED, AND DIFFICULT BREATHING, FLUTTERING AT THE HEART, CHOKING OR SUFFOCATING SENSATIONS WHEN IN A LYING POSTURE, DIMNESS OF VISION, DOTS OR WEBS BEFORE THE SIGHT. FEVER AND DULL PAIN IN THE HEAD, DEFICIENCY OR FERBRATION, YELLOWNESS OF THE SKIN AND EYES, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK, CHEST, LIMBS, &c., RUDDEN FLUSHES OF HEAT, BURNING IN THE FLESH, CONSTANT IMAGININGS OF EVIL AND GREAT DEPRESSION OF SPIRITS, can be effectually cured by DR. HOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, AT THE GERMAN MEDICINE STORE, 120 ARCH STREET, PHILADELPHIA. Their power over the above diseases is not exceeded by any other preparation in the United States, as the cases attest in many cases after skillful physicians—a fact worthy of great consideration. They are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be used by persons with the most delicate stomachs with safety, under any circumstances. We are speaking from experience, and to the afflicted we advise their use. "Scott's Weekly," one of the best Literary Journals published, said, Aug. 25: "Dr. Houghton's German Bitters, manufactured by Dr. Jackson, are now powerfully recommended by the faculty as an article of much efficacy in cases of female weakness. As such is the case, we would advise all mothers to obtain a bottle, and thus save themselves much sickness. Persons of debilitated constitutions will find these Bitters advantageous to their health, as we know from experience the salutary effects they have upon weak systems."

I'll think of thee when dewy eve, Spreads out the robes of sabbler night; And when the eve's sweet silver queen, Sheds forth her pale and lovely light. And when the stars come one by one, To light up Heaven's fair waveless sea, And spread their holy radiance round, I'll think of thee—I'll think of thee.

My own observations, during a residence of several years in Massachusetts, convinced me that charity to the fugitive slave, demands that he be returned to his master. A careful reading of the Holy Scripture on the subject does not permit me to doubt that it is my duty as a Christian Minister, to insist upon the obligation of masters to their slaves. This I do. Nor do I hold back any part of the counsel of God. I teach slaves that they, also, are bound by Christian obligations to their masters; obligations from which they are not released by unkindness and forwardness on the part of their masters, supposing them to be "unkind and f.oward," which is rarely the case.

Dr. Cartwright of New Orleans, communicated to a recent number of the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, an article of considerable interest to invalids, which is entitled "The Sugar House Cure for Bronchitis, Dyspeptic, and Consumptive Complaints." It is stated that a residence in a sugar house, during the rolling season, surpasses any other known means of restoring flesh, strength and health, lost by chronic ailments of the chest, throat, or stomach. The rolling season is the harvest, when the canes are cut, the juice expressed, and converted into sugar. In Louisiana it commences about the middle of October and ends at Christmas, but is sometimes protracted into January. Dr. Cartwright says: Last December, having a very severe and distressing cough, which, for some weeks, had resisted the usual remedies, I went into a sugar house, drank a glass of hot cane juice, and stood over the kettles, called clarifiers, for some hours, inhaling the vapor arising therefrom. The vapor was agreeable and soothing to the lungs. The fragrant, saccharine aura seemed to penetrate into the inmost recesses of the obstructed lobules, opening its way in the intercellular passages and air-cells, without exciting cough, but removing the obstructions, the cause of the cough.

THE Trail of the Woodcock. SOME years ago, an Italian singer, of a very gentlemanly and amiable character, named C., went over to England to sing at the Opera. He never loved the stage, and finding an opportunity of entering into some mercantile speculation, he quitted his original profession, dropped the Italian termination of his name, and became highly successful in his new pursuit. His distinguished manners, and the respectability of his character, obtained for him an admission into the first circles of London; and the Duke and Duchess of R— looked upon him with a particular regard and esteem, admitting him on familiar terms to their domestic circle, as well as to their more public parties. He never could wholly master the English language, however. One day dining alone with the duke and duchess, the duke sent him some woodcock, but omitted to send him any of the trail.

Having thus discharged my duty, I hope to be troubled no more by you in relation to these subjects. Should it ever be in my power to render you any christian service, you may believe me "Your servant for Christ's sake." THE HON. CHARLES SUMNER Boston.
